Father's Day Advice from Dads

| RECITER | PASSAGE |
|------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Reciter #1 | Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her to make her holy, cleansing her by the washing with water through the word, and to present her to himself as a radiant church, without stain or wrinkle or any other blemish, but holy and blameless. In this same way, husbands ought to love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself. Ephesians 5:25-28 (NIV) |
| Reciter #2 | These commandments that I give you today are to be on your hearts. Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. Tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads. Write them on the doorframes of your houses and on your gates. Deuteronomy 6:6-9 (NIV) |
| Reciter #3 | Start children off on the way they should go, and even when they are old they will not turn from it. Proverbs 22:6 (NIV) |
| Reciter #4 | Whoever fears the Lord has a secure fortress, and for their children it will be a refuge. Proverbs 14:26 (NIV) |
| Reciter #5 | As a father has compassion on his children, so the Lord has compassion on those who fear him; Psalm 103:13 (NIV) |
| Reciter #6 | But if serving the Lord seems undesirable to you, then choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your ancestors served beyond the Euphrates, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you are living. But as for me and my household, we will serve the Lord.” Joshua 24:15 (NIV) |
